Dear Mr. deGraffenreid:

STAT On 5 May 1983, [] Office of Security, and [] STAT
Associate General Counsel for Administrative Law Division, submitted to you a memorandum from me to the Acting Director of Central Intelligence, dated 7 April 1983, on the existing policies and implementation of National Security Decision Directive No. 84 by the Central Intelligence Agency.
Attached to the memorandum were copies of the following nondisclosure agreements and extracts of Agency regulations:

STAT []

Secrecy Agreements

Form 368

Secrecy Agreement for Collateral
Classified Materials

Form 4193

SCI Nondisclosure Agreement

STAT []

Release of Agency Information to Representatives of the Public Information
Media
Nonofficial Publications and Oral
Presentations by Employees and Former Employees
Media Briefings
Appearances of Agency Personnel Before
Non-Government Groups

STAT

Handbook of Required Regulatory Readings,
Foreword and Table of Contents
Compliance with Security Regulations
Polygraph

Also included in this package was a proposed Agency regulation on damage assessments.

STAT

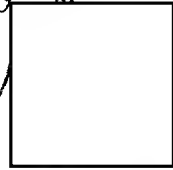

In response to your letter of 10 June 1983, I am enclosing a copy of Agency Information Security Program, which was not included in the original submission on 5 May 1983. This regulation includes sanctions that may be imposed upon Agency personnel, contractors, licensees, and grantees, who knowingly, willfully, or negligently disclose classified information to unauthorized persons. [Redacted] also provides that the Agency notify the Director, Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO), in accordance with procedures established by ISOO whenever an unauthorized disclosure occurs.

STAT

Based on our review of the above regulations we have determined that the Agency appears to be in compliance with the various requirements of NSDD No. 84 except for the exceptions cited in my 7 April 1983 memorandum. Please let us know if you agree with this assessment and if the cited exceptions fall within the intent of the President's Directive.

Sincerely,
